

Posting Date: May 4, 2015

Position Title: Senior Electrical and Mechanical Technician
Reports To: Engineering Director
Work Location: San Antonio, Texas
Work Experience: Minimum 5 years' experience
Relocation: Necessary to live in San Antonio area

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Duties may be all or a portion of the following tasks, as assigned:

- Repair and test circuit boards, cables, and electronic assemblies, following instructions.
- Perform basic mechanical assembly. Make repairs as needed, following engineering instructions.
- Complete quality system documentation in conjunction with performing tasks.
- Perform basic electrical and electronic testing according to written procedures.

Qualifications

- Ability to read schematics and wiring diagrams.
- Soldering skills.
- Microsoft Office skills.
- Ability to use test equipment such as a multi meter or oscilloscope.
- Ability to work safely with 220V AC power into chassis.
- Experience troubleshooting electronic devices and computers a plus.
- Willing to take on additional responsibilities as assigned.
- Ability to lift up to 50 pounds and to stand/walk for extended periods.
- Ability to exercise and display good judgment and prioritize duties.
- Self-motivated.
- Communicate well in English both verbally and in written format.
- Ability to follow detailed instructions.
- Ability to work in a team environment.

Education and Experience

- Associates Degree in electronics field preferred.
- 5+ years of related work experience.
- Experience working under an ISO13485 quality system preferred.